

AARON DRUMMOND

GENERAL MANAGER

Growing up on the Mornington Peninsula in Australia, surrounded by vineyards, it was somewhat inevitable that the love of wine would play a defining role in Aaron's career.

After leasing an old disused vineyard and making wine from it in 2004, Aaron joined Mount Langi Ghiran, the pioneering Australian cool climate Shiraz producer. After a number of years at Langi, Aaron took a broader role across the Rathbone Wine Group, heading up Global Sales & Marketing for all the Family owned wineries (Mount Langi Ghiran, Yering Station, Xanadu & Parker Coonawarra). Aaron left the role as Sales & Marketing Director at the Rathbone Wine Group in mid-2015, to take up the General Manager role at Craggy Range.
