

CRAGGY RANGE

DAVID PEABODY DIRECTOR

Since the early 1990's, younger son, David Peabody, has been involved in the Management and Directorship of a number of corporations as part of the Peabody family's commercial holdings.

In 1993, David relocated to the Philippines and is currently a Director of broadband outsourcing group Top Draw Animations as well as a Director of Craggy Range Vineyards Ltd overseeing the Philippines market. He was the Peabody family member on the ground in Hawke's Bay during the development of Craggy Range and was present to work the first vintage back in 1999.

David owns the working farm neighboring the Giants winery in the Tuki Tuki Valley that will also be passed down to future generations of his family.
